I have cli--imbed--- the highest mountains, I have ru-un through the fields
On--ly to be--- with you---, on--ly to be--- with you---
I have ru-un----- I have crawled, I have sca--led these city walls---
These ci--ty wa--alls-----, on--ly to be--- with you---

But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for-----
But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for-----

I have ki--issed----- honey lips-----, felt the healing finger-tips,
It burned-- like fi--ire---, this burn--ing de--si--ire-----
I have spo--oke with the tongue of angels, I have he--eld the hand of a de--vil--
It was warm in the ni--ight-----, I was cold as a sto--one-----

But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for-----
But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for-----

I be--lie--eve--- in the Kingdom come, when all the colors-- will bleed into one
Bleed into o---one, but, yes, I'm still run--ning
You broke the bo--onds, you loosed the chains Car-ried the cro--oss of my shame,
Of my sha-----ame, You know I be-li---eve it----

But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for-----
But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for-----
But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for-----
But I still----- haven't found----- what I'm looking for----- D\
